A six-year-old Hampton schoolboy died in the Hanover fire department ambulance enroute to the Hanover hospital Friday afternoon of injuries received when he was struck by a tractor-trailer truck in the square at Hampton at 3:43 o'clock.

Richard Elmer Kindt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel K. Kindt, East Berlin street, Hampton, was crushed by the truck and suffered multiple fractures. The truck driver, Robert Leroy Signor, 26, of 1101 Julia street, Harrisburg, was held in $1,000 bail, state police said, for an inquest to be conducted by Coroner J. Lester Sell, of York county.

The Kindt boy was returning from school, and was crossing the street on the south side of the square to get the mail at Schimmel's store, which houses the post office, state police said.

Ran In Front Of Truck

The truck, owned by Stanley Ozner, 348 South Second street, Harrisburg, and driven by Signor, was traveling south toward Cross Keys. It was loaded with gravel.

The Kindt boy darted across the street from the east to the west side in front of the truck, police said. The truck swerved to the right in an unsuccessful attempt to avoid striking the boy, ran into a tree on the Schimmel property and overturned. Damage to the truck was estimated at $300.

The boy's body was carried approximately 30 feet. His shoes were torn off and he was badly crushed, but was still breathing when a Hampton nurse, Miss Effie Lou Bucher, reached the scene.

Funeral On Tuesday

The boy is survived by his parents, two brothers, Russel, Jr., and Thomas Kindt; two sisters, Barbara and Alice, all at home; his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kindt, Hampton and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kohr, Lebanon, Pa. Mr. Kindt is a truck driver for a Hanover firm. Mrs. Kindt is the former Dorothy Kohr.

The body was taken to the Pitten-turf funeral home, York Springs. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Hampton Lutheran church. Rev. Samuel M. Clarke officiating, and interment will be in the Hampton cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Monday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Young Naval Officer, Descendant Of Seminary Prexy, Receives Congressional Medal Of Honor From Truman For Heroic Efforts In Trying To Save Negro Ensign

A navy lieutenant, whose great grandfather left the presidency of Newberry college in the south because of his anti-slavery beliefs and came to the Gettysburg Lutheran theological seminary during the Civil War, Friday was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor for his efforts to save the life of a comrade in Korea. The comrade was a negro naval officer.

The naval lieutenant, Thomas J. Hudner, Jr., was the first navy man to win the medal of honor during the Korean war. The officer he attempted to save, Ensign Jesse L. Brown, was the first of his race to become a navy flyer and the first negro naval officer killed in any of this country's wars.

Grandad, College Grad

The great grandfather was Dr. J. A. Brown, whose anti-slavery principles led him to leave Newberry college, and whose ability led him to the presidency of the local seminary after he came North. Lieutenant Hudner's grandfather, J. Hay Brown, resided in Gettysburg, graduated from Gettysburg college, was a college trustee and later became Chief Justice of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. Miss Elizabeth Cox, Carlisle street, is a first cousin, once removed, of Lieutenant Hudner.

President Truman Friday told the naval flyer that his feat was "wonderful" in presenting him with the Medal of Honor in a ceremony held in the White House garden.

Family At Ceremony

Present also were the officer's father, his three brothers, James, Richard and Philip, and a sister, Miss Mary E. Hudner; Francis P. Matthews, secretary of the navy; Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, chief of naval operations, and the widow of Ensign Brown, Mrs. Daisy P. (Continued on Page 6)

President Truman had a smile and handshake of congratulations, Friday, at the White House for Lieut. (j.g.) Thomas J. Hudner, after decorating him with the navy's first Congressional Medal of Honor in the Korean War. Hudner crash-landed his plane in enemy territory in an effort to save a fellow airman's life. His father, Thomas J. Hudner, of Fall River, Mass., and a sister, Mary E. Hudner (background) were among relatives attending the ceremony. (AP Wirephoto)

UPPER ADAMS R. C. DISTRICT REACHES GOAL

The Adams county Red Cross today began an intensive campaign to raise the last $2,000 needed to successfully end its drive for $14,000.

Harry D. Ridinger, chairman of the 1951 fund campaign, estimated today that $2,000 additional would put the drive over its goal. With reports still incomplete approximately $12,000 has been turned in to the county Red Cross office.

The Upper Adams area was the latest section to report its collections, turning in $2,100 Friday night. Thomas Cline, chairman of Upper Adams district, made the report: Last year collections in the Upper Adams area totaled $1,807.

Two other sections, York Springs and East Berlin were reported nearing their goals.

Those sums were expected to be turned in today, as the drives ended in those sections. However, it may be Monday or Tuesday before the two drives are ended, but heads of the campaign in those areas were optimistic today of meeting their goals.

Town $1,800 Short

Incomplete reports from Gettysburg indicate that the town still has about $1,800 to raise if it is to meet its quota of $5,800.

Abbotstown, with $202.35 turned in, has exceeded its goal of $200, and Fairfield, New Oxford, McSherrytown, Littlestown and Cumberland township have already been reported as exceeding their goals.

Need Is Urgent

Cashtown and New Chester have made partial reports indicating they will probably reach their goals.

The Red Cross today urged all who have not been contacted to send their contribution direct to the Red Cross office, if they wish, and at the same time urged those solicitors who have still not seen all persons on their lists to do so with the hope (Continued on Page 2)

Congress Expected To Invite MacArthur To Address Group

Washington, April 14 (AP)—General Douglas MacArthur is virtually assured of a full hearing before Congress next week and civic leaders here are planning a welcome for the soldier fired by President Truman.

Thornton W. Owens, president of the Washington Board of Trade, called a noon meeting "to plan an appropriate welcome for the general." He said he hoped "all elements of government will cooperate."

The army said that unless MacArthur requests otherwise, he will be greeted by a ceremonial detail of troops, an army band and a salute by a battery of guns.

Senate Welcome Committee

Senator Hendrickson (R-NJ) yesterday offered a resolution to establish a Senate committee to welcome MacArthur to Washington.

Prodded by President Truman, Democratic leaders cleared the way for approval Tuesday of a formal invitation for the deposed Pacific commander to speak at a joint meeting of both Houses of Congress.

MacArthur has indicated he would accept, but the timing of such an address was still uncertain.

Truman Is Pleased

Mr. Truman, who fired MacArthur Wednesday because of the general's refusal to go along with presidential policies in the Far East, said in a White House statement last night: "I am happy to learn from speaker Rayburn that Congress is planning to invite General MacArthur to address the members of both Houses. I regard it as fitting that Congress bestow this honor on one of our great military men."

Tokyo, April 14 (AP)—General MacArthur today postponed until Tuesday his return to the United States to give Congress his views in the debate over American policy in Asia.

The general and his party will leave Tokyo Monday morning, Japan time, as originally scheduled, but will stop over 24 hours in Honolulu.

The deposed U. S. Commander in the Far East will reach San Francisco Tuesday afternoon. The group will leave Wednesday morning for New York.

MacArthur at first planned to land in San Francisco Monday. Associates said the stopover in Honolulu was ordered to give the party some rest after the long flight from Tokyo.

A huge reception planned for the general in San Francisco was put off for one day.

Wrong Choice

Baltimore, April 14 (AP)—An insurance collector called on one of his clients yesterday.

The housewife who opened the door looked at him from behind two puffed up black eyes and a bruised nose. Astonished—and curious—the collector pressed for an explanation.

"He did it," she explained, referring to her husband.

"He asked me who I thought was right, MacArthur or Truman. I said Truman."

LEGISLATORS AND TEACHERS DISCUSS MONEY, SCHOOL BILLS

School teachers and legislators met at the Hotel Gettysburg Friday night to discuss school legislation pending in the state legislature and the problem of raising revenue to pay for the state's many needs.

The school teachers were members of the legislative committees of the Adams county, Gettysburg and Franklin county PSEA branches. The legislators were State Senator Donald P. McPherson, Jr., and Assemblyman H. Earl Pitzer.

L. V. Stock, supervising principal of the Upper Adams jointure and chairman of the Adams county PSEA legislative committee, presided at the dinner meeting and outlined the numerous bills before the legislature affecting the schools.

Panel Discussion

Stock explained that the meeting was not held to bring any pressure to bear concerning any bill, but to join in discussing with the legislators the bills affecting Adams and Franklin county schools.

Most of the teachers agreed that the first thing to be done by the legislature is to determine what type of tax bills should be approved and that whatever legislation will come later will be in accordance with that tax structure.

Most of them also were agreed that the basis of the state's tax structure must be widened and indicated that they favored either a general sales tax or an income tax. Most of the teachers were of the opinion that the present tax structure, locally, on real estate puts an unjust burden on landowners and felt that both state and local taxes should be given a broader base so that all people would pay according to their ability.

Approve Some Measures

At least three bills in the legislature were approved by the teachers (Continued on Page 2)

Commanderies To Install Brothers

The officers of Bethel Commandery 93, Knights Templar, Hanover, and those of Gettysburg Commandery, together with the officers of York Commandery 21, Gethsemane Commandery 75 of York, and Cyrene Commandery 34, Columbia, which comprise Division No. 16 of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, will be installed in a joint public ceremony in the Masonic Temple, York, tonight at 8 o'clock.

The event will also include a reception for Sir Knight Raymond F. Hoffman, Pittsburgh, Right Eminent Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania, and his staff, and the presentation of Past Commander jewels to the retiring commanders of the five commanderies.

This event will be of unusual interest in Templar history as it is the second time that brothers serving as commanders of different commanderies during the same year, are so honored, and the first time that it has occurred in southeastern Pennsylvania. They are Samuel H. Higginbotham, Littlestown, commander of Bethel Commandery, Hanover, and Richard H. Higginbotham, New Oxford, commander of Gettysburg Commandery.

Is Held For Court On Surety Of Peace

Jacob H. Snyder, Gettysburg R. 4, charged with surety of the peace by Mrs. Alice Naugle, same address, was held for court by Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore following a hearing Friday. He was committed to jail in default of $1,000 bail.

Snyder was arrested Thursday afternoon by Constable Charles Smith. The complainant, housekeeper for Snyder's father, Unger Snyder, authorities said, charged that Snyder struck her with a stone. Snyder denied this but admitted slapping her.

Snyder filed a surety of the peace charge against Mrs. Naugle before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder, and a hearing held following the Basehore hearing was continued until April 16.

Reds Launch New Assaults As Prelude To Big Offensive

Tokyo, April 14 (AP)—Red counterattacks, made at heavy cost, rolled up today along the Korean front but it was too early to say if this was the expected big push.

Chinese and North Korean troops struck at least eight heavy counterblows in west and central Korea in attacks which began yesterday.

This sternest opposition in weeks was estimated by U.S. Eighth Army headquarters to have cost the foe 4,275 in dead and wounded.

Lt. Gen. George E. Stratemeyer, Allied air commander, said the Reds were building new air fields in North Korea and were getting ready to attempt strong air attacks on Allied ground forces and installations.

New Red Charge

Red China's radio at Peiping also implied such air blows could be expected. It charged that Allied planes had bombed the Manchurian border city of Antung and said the Reds must "most certainly retaliate."

The unsubstantiated charge presumably stemmed from Thursday's powerful Allied air assault on the enemy supply bridge across the Yalu river linking Antung with North Korea's Sinuiju.

During that assault, 115 U.S. jets and 32 B-29s tangled with 80 Russian-type MIG-15 jets. The Allies reported eight MIGs were destroyed, seven probably destroyed and 18 damaged. The Air Force in Washington said two of the B-29s were shot down by the MIGs.

Despite the latest Red counterattacks, field dispatches indicated the Allies still were advancing at points along a 120-mile front.

The U. S. Eighth Army operated today under its new commander, Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet.

Cautious Advance

He flew in from Japan and was taken to his new headquarters by Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, his predecessor in the command. Ridgway was appointed by President Truman to the multiple commands vacated by the dismissal of General MacArthur.

The Allied advance continued cautiously toward the Chorwon-Kumhwa-Hwachon triangle. That is the west and central area where vanguards of an estimated 695,000 Reds were believed massed.

Allied patrols stabbed into Yonchon, within 13 miles of Chorwon, and found it abandoned. But the tank-infantry patrol pulled back later.

UPPER ADAMS

that the additional $2,000 may be raised.

The need for funds raised in the campaign is urgent, the Red Cross noted. A letter from Roland Harrison, national president of the Red Cross, to the local chapter today pointed up that need.

So far, President Harriman reported, 76.97 per cent of the country's $85,000,000 goal has been achieved. The drive for funds, he added, must be extended until the entire amount has been secured. Demands caused by the Korean war, the deployment of troops to Europe and the increase in the number of members of the armed forces has increased the need for funds on the part of the Red Cross far above anticipated budgeted needs.

The letter stated that the amount budgeted for the armed forces has already been exceeded by $5,000,000 as the Red Cross seeks to provide the blood plasma needed by the armed forces, as well as the other Red Cross services provided by the Red Cross for the troops and their families.

Biglerville high school's unbeaten baseball team, defending champions, became the team to stop in the 1951 race when it drubbed East Berlin 11-2 in an Adams County league game Friday afternoon at Biglerville to take over undisputed possession of first place.

Coach Charles Yost's Cannons pushed over six runs in the opening inning and then breezed through to an easy conquest behind the fourth-hitting Dan Bushman. Bushman whiffed 14 batsmen. Warner led Biglerville's 13-hit barrage with three safeties. Wonders collected two hits for East Berlin.

York Springs moved into a second place tie with East Berlin by nailing out Newville 5-4 at York Springs.

The winners tallied a run in the last of the seventh with two out to gain the triumph. D. Guise opened the inning by reaching first base when he was struck by a pitched ball. He stole second base. Harbold fanned. Wonders batted to shortstop and Guise was nipped at third. Wonders then pilfered second base and scored when Earl Guise blasted a single past second.

The Boiling Springs-Littlestown game was postponed due to wet grounds.

BOB BAKER WINS 20TH STRAIGHT

New York, April 14 (AP) — Tender hands are the chief concern of Bob Baker, Pittsburgh's unbeaten heavyweight hope with 20 straight wins.

Both hands were swollen last night as Baker, at 216½, battered Elkins Brothers, of New Castle, Pa., for a unanimous ten round decision.

Although Brothers, a tough opponent, crowded Baker and gave him trouble in the early rounds, it wasn't close. Referee Mark Conn and Judge Jack Gordon had it 7-3, Judge Billy Healy 8-2. The Associated Press card agreed with Healy.

The Dundee brothers, Chris and Angelo, who manage Baker plan to keep him busy. They figure only constant work can toughen his hands. Tentative plans call for Baker to fight at Pittsburgh April 30. Jimmy Blvins may be the opponent.

Baker, 4 inches taller and 26 pounds heavier than Brothers, had his man in trouble in the 10th. Brothers wobbled against the ropes and hung on in the final stages. But Baker, apparently worried about his hands, never dropped him. He was cautious to a fault.

A crowd of 2,342 paid $5.46 to see the show that was carried on network television and radio. Baker's New York debut was hardly a novelties success. Still he did everything but flatten Brothers. He was efficient in his cautious way.

Emmitsburg

PREPARING FOR REGISTRATION OF TOWN VOTERS

The monthly meeting of the burgess and commissioners of Emmitsburg was held at the town office in the fire hall, Tuesday night with Commissioner Thomas J. Fraley presiding in the absence of the president of the board, Lloyd G. Ohler. Present also at the meeting was County Sanitarian Kenneth Wagerman, who stated that the county health department had received several complaints from Emmitsburg citizens concerning unsanitary conditions. The existence of several back yard toilets within the borough was discussed and a decision to enforce the ordinance prohibiting these facilities was agreed upon.

A report of the condition of the small run that flows across South Seton avenue and along the children's playground stated that it is believed to be entirely free from any sewage.

The town treasurer, Miss Louise Sebold, presented bond, tax and meter reports which were accepted. She reported a bank balance of $1,265.93. March parking meters brought in $388.08. A financial grant was made to the town library.

Preparation for the annual registration of new voters in the borough was made. A registrar will be in the town office in the fire hall from 2 to 7 p.m., April 24, for that purpose. The annual town election will be held Monday, May 7, when a burgess and one commissioner will be elected. All candidates must signify their intention at least ten days before the election. This intention to be a candidate may be filed with the burgess or the clerk, Thornton W. Rodgers and Miss Louise Sebold.

Vote for DST
Each voter must be registered in the town ledger to be permitted to vote in the town election. A resolution for daylight saving time for Emmitsburg was adopted for 1951. The accustomed time for changing to DST is the last Sunday in April, which is April 29 this year.

The term of Commissioner Lloyd G. Ohler expires this year. The two other commissioners are: Col. Thomas J. Fraley and Wales E. Richtour. Permission to erect a doctor's free parking place was granted to Dr. O. H. Stinson, dentist. The meeting adjourned at 10 p.m. to meet again the second Tuesday in May.

Lt. Margaret Welty Baker, Ft. Lee, Va., spent several days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tyson Welty.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

South Bend, Ind., April 14 (AP) — They're calling it the "year of the drought at Notre Dame." . . . It started when Jack Kline's baseball team had a sour season last spring.

Then you've heard of Frank Leahy's 1950 football squad, which displayed its clay feet to the public and wound up with the worst Notre Dame record since 1933 — four victories, four losses and a tie. . . . The track team last spring had four men who set all-time Notre Dame records, including the hardest-luck guy of them all. John Helwig was a consistent 54-foot shot-putter, good enough to win almost anywhere, but he reached his peak the same year that Yale's Jim Fuchs was beating 58 feet every fry. Helwig also was a first string tackle on the football team which Leahy called his "greatest" — but John played only on defense and never grabbed the headlines. . . . During the winter, Moose Krause's basketballers won 13 and lost 11 games. . . . And the fencing team compiled the year's best record — eight wins and two losses.

IRISH JIGS

Joe Boland, another old-time

Notre Dame player, still likes to tell about that thrilling 18-13 victory over Ohio State a few years back.

Seems that a lad named Jim McKenna hadn't been picked for the traveling squad but thumbed his way to Columbus, his "ticket" for the game was football pants and jersey, which he pulled on with no pads, so he'd be allowed to sit on the bench. . . . Came the closing minutes of the game with Notre Dame trailing, Coach Elmer Layden looked around frantically for a sub to send in with a play and there was no one available but McKenna. . . . So he was the one who "called" the winning touchdown.

BACK TO BACH

alumnus) was holding spring football scrimmage at St. Bonaventure and noticed one defensive tackle who was having a rough afternoon. . . . "Son," asked Joe, "are they going inside you?" . . . "I don't know, sir," was the answer. . . . "Well, are they going outside you?" . . . "I don't know that either, coach," replied the kid, "but they sure are going over me."

The Vigilant Hose company financial drive has reported that the fire company's annual drive is meeting with good success so far. The volunteer firement quelled 43 fires in 1950, some of them serious. A number of the men suffered from extreme exposure fighting dangerous fires. A total of 1,800 man hours were consumed in fighting local fires. Total contributions last year were $2,140.75 coming from the entire district numbering over 3,000 citizens.

President Herbert Rogers is asking the public to be generous in supporting the fire company this year. He stated that the company is purchasing a new truck to cost around $12,000; that they have "done their best as a company of fellow citizens for the protection and saving of life and property and are asking the community for its best now." The drive will continue through April.

The Indian Lookout Conservation club of Emmitsburg distributed 200 blue pills in three local streams this past week. The stocking was done by Weldon B. Shank and Robert Stone-sifer in Toms creek, Middle creek and Monocacy river.

Philadelphia, April 14 (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies were more worried today about star first baseman, Eddie Waitkus, than the possibility of losing the three-game city series to their American league rivals, the Athletics.

Waitkus was hit on the right elbow yesterday by a pitched ball as the National league champions were routed by the A's 7-2. It was the same elbow Waitkus injured earlier in spring practice. X-rays will be taken today to determine the extent of the injury.

Pittsburgh, April 14 (AP) — Manager Billy Meyer hopes to unveil the Pittsburgh Pirates today before the hometown fans in an exhibition game with the Washington Senators. Rookie southpaw Paul Pettit, who took his army physical examination yesterday, will hurl for the Bucs.

Manager Bucky Harris of the Senators expects to start Sandalia Consuegra, one of the Cubans on the roster.

Both clubs wind up the spring exhibition grind with another game tomorrow. Rain and a break in the schedule has kept the Pirates idle the last five days.

Boston, April 14 (AP) — With a 2-1 edge in Boston's five-game intracity series, the Red Sox will attempt to increase their lead over the Braves behind the pitching of Ray Scarborough and Harry Taylor today at the wigwam.

The Tribesmen plan to counter with a pair of their top ace, right-hander Johnny Sain and southpaw Warren Spahn, in hopes of deadlocking the series for its Sunday windup at Fenway Park.

The Boston teams divided their two Florida tilts and yesterday the Red Sox stormed from behind for a 12-8 victory, thanks to a pair of five-run rallies, the second of which came in the ninth inning.

Brooklyn, April 14 (AP) — Many of the Brooklyn Dodgers, especially the pitchers, may not be ready for the season's opener, but Captain Pee Wee Reese is all set and raring to go.

The little colonel had a good day at the plate yesterday as the Dodgers nipped the New York Yankees, 7-6. Reese collected a three-run homer off Ed Lopat. He also hit two singles. The home run was the decisive blow before 8,479 fans in Yankee Stadium.

Brooklyn, April 14 (AP) — Maybe Allie Reynolds will be ready for regular duty sooner than anyone thinks. The big Yankee right-hander pitched batting practice yesterday — and threw hard with no apparent

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
YOU CAN!

All of us need more encouragement than we get. Watching the performance of animals by a kindly trainer I was impressed with the apparent affection that the animals had for the one who had them in charge. I did some thinking during that interesting hour. Over the TB I watched a basketball game and noted how the trainer of the boys patted each one as he retired for a rest.

For want of encouragement many a human being has fallen below what should have been his best—all for the lack of a little encouragement at the right time. If these brief talks fail to encourage people who read them from day to day, they have failed. I hope they haven't.

We need someone to stand beside us, though invisibly, to keep whispering to us that we CAN! I had a wonderful twin sister. We were inseparable until she went to China, where she spent 30 years in missionary work. We went through high school and college together. There were difficult times in school, for I had to work my way through, but when things looked darkest that sister would always say: "You can"—and of course I did!

You may recall the famous saying, attributed to Napoleon, when he decided to take his army across the Alps into Italy. His advisers said it was impossible, but Napoleon's reply was: "There shall be no Alps!" Well, we can take heart from such a spirit. When difficulties or failure face us we can say within ourselves that these difficulties can be overcome and we will walk right past failure!

In the life of the late Henry Ford his engineers faced a difficult problem, and they kept coming back to him telling him that it couldn't be done. Each time Mr. Ford told them to go ahead and do it anyway. He would not take "No" for an answer. Finally, because of the You Can spirit of his the thing desired was achieved.

You can be your own silent advisor. You can say to yourself—YOU CAN. And if you say it loud enough and put your finger behind it, you will be rewarded with the fact that you did—win! God's voice often whispers to us all: "YOU CAN!"

LESSON

He took a smile into the store,
And spoke a pleasant word.
The clerk returned the smile he wore.
A pleasant word he heard.

He took with him a friendly mood,
Attention kind to win.
And found, as he believed he would,
A friendly mood within.

But when he entered, had he frowned,
And used a manner grim,
I'm sure he knew he would have found
His frown return to him.

Thought I, in just that little while
He taught us how to live.
We gain a smile with every smile,
And get back as we give.

MAN, 64, ADMITS KILLING FRIEND

Trenton, N. J., April 14 (AP) — Authorities said a husky, 64-year-old former seaman today admitted the brutal, bare-fisted killing of a 58-year-old Yardville civic leader who befriended him.

Jacinto (Jesse) Carlos, a Portuguese alien, was arraigned on a first degree murder charge for the fatal beating of Leon A. West, president of the Civic association of Yardville, five miles east of here.

Police Magistrate Daniel Rappaport ordered Carlos held for the Mercer county grand jury and a not guilty plea entered for him when he refused to plead.

The murder was described as "one of the most brutal bare-handed murder we've had in years" by Mercer county detective Edward Lee-dom.

Detective Capt. Thomas D. Simpson said the six-foot, 175-pound one-time deck hand admitted the killing because he was "in love" with West's wife, Martha, (age unavailable) and wanted him out of the way.

Simpson said Mrs. West, who had been on a vacation in St. Petersburg, Fla., had been notified of her husband's death and was on her way back to New Jersey.

Shippensburg Alumni At Dinner Meeting

The second annual meeting of the Adams county branch of the Shippensburg State Teachers' college Alumni association was held Wednesday evening when a ham dinner was enjoyed in the cafeteria of the Littlestown Junior-Senior high school, with approximately 65 members and their guests in attendance.

Dr. Harry R. Kriner, president of the college, was the principal speaker for the affair. Brief talks were given by Dr. Earl A. Wright, the college dean of instruction; Miss Erma Roler and Harper Wentz, of the faculty, and Charles I. Raf-fensperger, assistant superintendent of schools in Adams county.

A business session was held with the retiring president, Charles Gentzler, presiding. Election of officers was held as follows: President, Charles Taylor, supervising principal of the New Oxford schools; vice president, Robert Reinhold, Fairfield, and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Evelyn Shriver, Gettysburg. Retiring officers, in addition to Mr. Gentzler, were: George Inskip, Fairfield, vice president, and Frank E. Baschoar, Littlestown, secretary-treasurer. On the nominating committee were Francis Coulson, Mrs. Milo Diehl and Maurice E. Bream. The arrangement committee was composed of Garnet E. Schellhase, chairman, Mrs. H. Dean Stover, Mrs. Margaret Lohr, Paul Burkholder, James L. Rhoades and Maurice E. Bream.

The Mite society of Trinity Methodist church met Friday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Freeman. The pastor, Rev. Adam E. Grim, opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. Thomas J. Frailey conducted the business meeting. Mrs. William A. Frailey was in charge of the program which included a quiz contest won by Mrs. George L. Willhide. Vocal musical numbers were presented by Mrs. Adam E. Grim. Seventeen members and guests attended and two new members, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Fuss, were received into the society. Refreshments were served. The next meeting of the Mite society will be on Friday, April 27, and at the home of Mrs. Lewis Bell.

John M. Rody, Jr., St. Anthony's Shrine, was elected second vice president of the Progressive Democratic club of Frederick county at a club meeting at the Frederick YMCA Monday night.

Warning On Car Care

With conditions calling for greater care in the operation and servicing of cars be on your guard against generalizations which too often are more harm than help. Recently in the public prints motorists were told to grease the universal joints every 5,000 miles. It sounded plausible, but hardly in keeping with the fact that many cars are equipped with joints which are packed in grease and good for 20,000 miles or thereabouts. At that time the joints can be disassembled and repacked, but because of the labor involved it is more practical to replace them. Motorists have also recently been told to change the cartridge in the oil filter every 10,000 miles. It would be safer to change every 3,000. Where filters do not have replaceable elements water may cause rusting and a destructive oil leak if too much mileage is chalked up without changes in filters. Front wheel bearings should be checked twice a year, not every 10,000 miles which for many motorists would be every two years or more.

Service instructions must be more specific for safer results. Our cars are by no means standardized. Nor do we all drive them the same way, over the same roads and under the same conditions. Beware efforts toward over-simplification.

Keep Them In Mind

Brake parts should not be washed in gasoline, kerosene or oil. There are special cleansing fluids for this purpose.

Some cars steer badly because of camber of the front wheels has increased without corresponding increase in their toe in.

Since the weight of the car tips forward when you indulge in a sudden stop the rear end lightens. That's why too many quick stops wear the rear tire treads more than those up front.

If the term "cam angle" or "dwell angle" gets you down, now is the time to learn that it isn't as technical as it sounds. It is merely the angle of the period in which the breaker points of the distributor stay closed. It is expressed in degrees. This represents a method for adjusting the gap of breaker points, and is preferred to use of a feeler gauge. It should always be used when the points are being reset and are not new. No consideration is made for the degrees during which the points are open. The greater this cam angle the stronger the primary current and the greater inductance there will be of secondary current for the ignition system. There's a normal drop in inductance as car speed increases, but a drop in compression makes it easier for a weaker spark to fire.

Mechanic Joe Speaking

"It's surprising how many good ideas I can pick up from taking a close look at new parts. So often these parts have been given a slightly different shape to overcome conditions which factory engineers have discovered."

"A perfect illustration concerns brake linings. Just opened up a set of liners which had the ends sharply chamfered off. It was no mere finishing touch. Acting on the tip I chamfered the linings on a brake job I was doing and, sure enough, the previous tendency to squeal and grab disappeared."

Easy With That Diagnosis

Fortunately in trying to study the misbehavior of our car engines it is usually possible to be able to double check with the aid of additional clues. I was reminded of this when a friend of mine jumped to the conclusion that the light knocking sound he heard in his car was a piston slap. He was painfully certain of this, and was just about to order a retake of the motor job when he discovered another angle to the situation. The engine wasn't using oil. Such economy of oil doesn't go with loose, sloppy pistons.

It started him thinking, and he was rewarded by discovering that the noise in the motor was due to need for a more careful adjustment of the tappet for one of the valves.

A friend of mine was a little puzzled as to why the engine of his car failed to start pronto after it has been standing in the warm sunlight on a cold day, whereas it had started easily enough earlier. But he is observing. Noting that his car was parked on an angle he reasoned that some ice on the side of the hood was melting and running down over the battery. A little mopping with a dry cloth was the answer.

New In Fuel Pumps

You may never have noticed it but the fuel pump has provision for giving the carburetor a smoother flow of gasoline. It takes the form of a small dome atop the filter. Now, however, this job is being taken over by the newest in fuel filters. Located between the pump and the carburetor this special type of filter converts the pulsating flow of fuel from the pump into a smooth flow to the carburetor. This means less wear on the needle valve and float lever, improves cold weather starting and gives smoother operation at idle and low speeds.

That annoying stalling which you may have noticed so often when temperatures were anywhere from 50 degrees down in the months past has been discovered to be icing of the throttle. Because there's a difference in the pressure above and below the throttle the air passing into the low pressure area causes a marked drop in temperature. Since the throttle itself is cold during the motor warm-up ice forms there and prevents fuel from getting through to the motor. That results in a stall.

Just as soon as the throttle warms up everything is normal again. One way to check this is to fast idle the engine during the warm-up. The reason so many have been puzzled by this is because it usually happens when the weather is damp in addition to being cold. Many mechanics were thrown off their course by thinking that there was moisture on the exposed ignition parts.

Margin Of Safety

Probably it's too simple, but one of the best ways of avoiding collisions is to keep further behind other cars. It doesn't seem to occur to the average wheel twirler that the faster he travels the more margin he should provide. Usually he tags right after the car ahead, and that's where the trouble starts. In effect, a car lengthens with increase in speed because it requires more room in which to maneuver. Experienced drivers often find it quite a safeguard to have plenty of room ahead when they see some other car behind going into a skid or not slowing down as rapidly as it should. Having room in which to move up is just another way to avoid a smash.

Q. Brakes on my car have been practically rebuilt but still they have a spongy feeling after I have been out on the open road for awhile. Even the new lining hasn't made any improvement. W. A.

A. Everything seems to point to inferior brake fluid which is affected by the temperature.

Q. I find it necessary to drive with the choke control half way out until the engine is well warmed up. This sometimes takes as long as five miles. N. N. S.

A. This indicates a very lean mixture, probably from an air leak around the intake manifold. Check the gaskets, the connection between carburetor and manifold and the manifold itself which may be cracked.

Q. There's a rumbling noise inside the engine every time I switch it off, after the engine is well warmed up. It seems to be hard to keep water in the radiator, too. Wm. K. L.

A. This noise in the motor is caused by "after boil." There is and overheated condition in the motor, and hot spots. This may be from too much carbon in the cylinders or heavy accumulations of sediment in the motor head and block. The whole cooling system needs thorough going over.

Q. What would cause the generator of my car to show a lower output after the car warms up? It generates normally when first starting out. S. M. N.

A. It would be more accurate to say that the generator operates abnormally when it is cold, delivering more than the normal output. It is because of the higher output when cold that you can help keep the battery up by fast idling the motor outdoors for about 15 minutes when it is cold.

Q. How often should the automatic choke be checked over? P. G. K.

A. A good rule is to consider this every time you have the ignition timing checked which should be about every two months for many cars.

Q. I have been getting a lot of backfiring on hills. This always stops if I ease off on the gas and let the car climb slowly. P. F. McB.

A. This has all the earmarks of a weak fuel pump. If so, the engine should also show a tendency to falter when the car is driven fast in second even on level ground.

Q. What is the meaning of occasional flickering of the lights? I have been told that this indicates fuse trouble, but I can't even locate Brown, of Hattiesburg, Miss. Lieutenant Huder and his family reside in Fall River, Mass.

Lieutenant Huder won his Congressional Medal of Honor last December 4.

Huder, attached to a fighter squadron of the Carrier Leyte, was participating in a close-support mission in the mountains near the Chosin reservoir in North Korea. His squadron mate, Ensign Brown, was flying nearby. Suddenly Ensign Brown's plane was hit by anti-aircraft fire, it trailed smoke and dived. Brown crash-landed his plane in a rough field about five miles from friendly territory. Huder circled Brown's plane to keep off hundreds of Chinese troops in the area.

Cockpit Canopy Jammed

When Brown's plane began to burn, Huder crash-landed his own plane in the same field in sub-zero weather and ran to the injured colleague despite the fact that his own chances of escape were small. Huder couldn't get the cockpit canopy open to release Brown. He radioed from his own plane for aid and then packed the fuselage of Brown's plane with snow to extinguish the flames.

Brown died from injuries before he could be extricated despite aid sent by helicopter. Huder was flown out of the field by Marine helicopter. The lieutenant is the eight hundred thirty-ninth navy man to win the Congressional Medal of Honor. He also holds the air medal and gold star in lieu of the second air medal.
